Susana Balbo Signature, Malbec, Argentina

BTL : £37

Susana Balbo who was the first female winemaker in Argentina, who collected a lifetime achievement award for her trailblazing career in wine. Susana's Signature Malbec has a dash of Cabernet Sauvignon to give it extra complexity. It's beautifully structured, with flavours of raspberry, plums and currants, as well as lovely hint of smoke. It's rich, velvety and everything you'd expect from a top quality Malbec

Chateau Perron, Lalande-De-Pomerol, 2016, France

Btl: £42

The wine is a compote of black and red fruits, very pure in character. A hint of toasted oak on the nose, with balanced acidity and freshness.

Established in the mid-1600's by the then owner of Haut Brion, the 57-acre (23-hectare) grounds of this château have been in the Massonie family for three generations. Many of the vines are 60 years old. This is a classic, Merlot dominated blend from Lalande-de-Pomerol.
